Mimos applications licences for 5 firms

MIMOS, a government research agency, has licensed five technology applications to five companies to help them grow their businesses. So far, Mimos has 76 technology transfer applications from companies and it aims to have more than 100 by year end. It has already developed a total of 21 technology prototypes, it said in a statement. The five companies are Bill Adam Associates Sdn Bhd, InfoValley Life Sciences Sdn Bhd, In-Fusion Solutions Sdn Bhd, Pemec Integrated Network Systems Sdn Bhd and CeedTec Sdn Bhd. They were identified by the Ministry of Science, Technology and Innovation.
