

Position : Developer HTML5 – Senior Staff Engineer
Headcount : 1 Headcount (NR9)
Department : Information Communication Technologies
Employment Type : MIMOS Direct Contract 2 years
Closing Date : 31st July 2013

Responsibilities

- Develop application and software to meet business specifications and requirements within allocated time
- Apply design patterns and industry best practices in software development
- Actively participate in architecture design, code review and system deployment
- Application unit testing to identify any technical problems and hitches
- Coordinate with the Platform team to ensure the necessary services are exposed in RESTful APIs

Skills

- Experience in developing applications for mobile devices
- Strong Object Oriented programming and design principles (essential)
- Knowledge of international web standards and protocol
- 4+ years of HTML5, CSS, Javascript, Web services
- 6+ years experience building mobile or web applications in a production environment
- Proven aptitude developing applications leveraging XML/JSON based RESTful/SOAP APIs
- Experienced in quality processes and documentations. Agile methodologies a plus.
- Understanding of mash-up technologies (desirable, not essential).
- Excellent team work skills, flexibility and ability to handle multiple tasks
- Experience with version control systems such as Subversion or CVS
- Good levels of communication. Both written and verbal

Requirements

- B.S. or M.S. degree in Computer Science, Electrical Engineering or any related field