

Lead Business Analyst

The incumbent is responsible for analysing projects or business domain and in documenting its business or processes or systems, assessing the business model or its integration with technology as well as overseeing the work being done by any other Business Analyst working on the project. The incumbent serves as technical adviser to the management and provides business model perspective on requirements, owns the processes, has supervisory responsibilities in delegating work and ensuring the projects is delivered on time and under budget, Defines and documents customer business functions, processes, rules, roles, input and output requirements.

Responsibilities:

- Study and understand the problem statement or scope of work
- Identify and perform stakeholder analysis
- Define and document customer business functions, processes, rules, roles, input and output requirements

Skills/Language:

- Experience in conducting and facilitating requirements gathering workshops.
- Experience in employing different techniques to gather requirements.
- Experience in the development of a wide range of business applications involving different domains