

Technical Manager

The incumbent is responsible for scheduling the balancing act of managing technical processes, estimating project budgets, schedule project timelines, handling teams and arranging for resources in providing the necessary environment for project success.

Responsibilities:

- Manage all expectations to deliver commercial type projects which require coordination with multiple labs, 3rd party vendors and end users / customers
- Responsible for ensuring that the assigned projects are delivered in a timely manner, with quality and meet the customer/end users' expectations. This includes the rigour of project management and monitoring, management of project issues and risks and management of project dependencies internally or externally

Skills/ Languages:

- Core Java programming and knowledge or experience with C/ C++, C# and / or VB
- Knowledgeable in Service Oriented Architecture / Web Services